Opportunity Place Meal Preparation and Delivery

Group: _____ Date: _____

Below is information taken directly from the Opportunity Place Meal/Instruction manual. If you have any questions, please contact Denise Whited at 830-0301. Thank you for serving!

The Meal: A prepared meal should contain a protein, a vegetable, a fruit and a starch. It can be individual items or a one pot dish. The shelter has ample bread (starch) and desserts: donations from commercial sources. Prepare 30 servings which cover our average population. Any leftovers are refrigerated/frozen for additional meals. Please use disposable aluminum pans for your meal. If available, you may get replacements at the shelter when you make delivery. They should be covered with aluminum foil and labeled with your name, contents, and scheduled date plus any serving instructions like serve hot or cold etc.

Meal Delivery: Please deliver your meal between 4-5pm on the scheduled day.

Sandra Shelton is the meal coordinator: 850-200-4847 (work)318-272-7431(cell)

amber@opifwb.org the meal is not delivered by 5pm and no call has been received the shelter will have to order dinners from Golden Corral. If you need to deliver the meal on an earlier day or at an earlier time on your scheduled day please call the appropriate number above and advise the time you would like to deliver to be sure staff will be there to accept it.

Meal Service: You are welcome to serve your meal, if you wish. Normal dinner time is 5:30pm. Although many of the residents are there at the scheduled dinner time some will eat later due to work or educational/training schedules. The residents will do the set up and clean up duties. Remember to replace your disposable aluminum pans (if available) before you leave.

What to do if you are going to be away on your scheduled day:

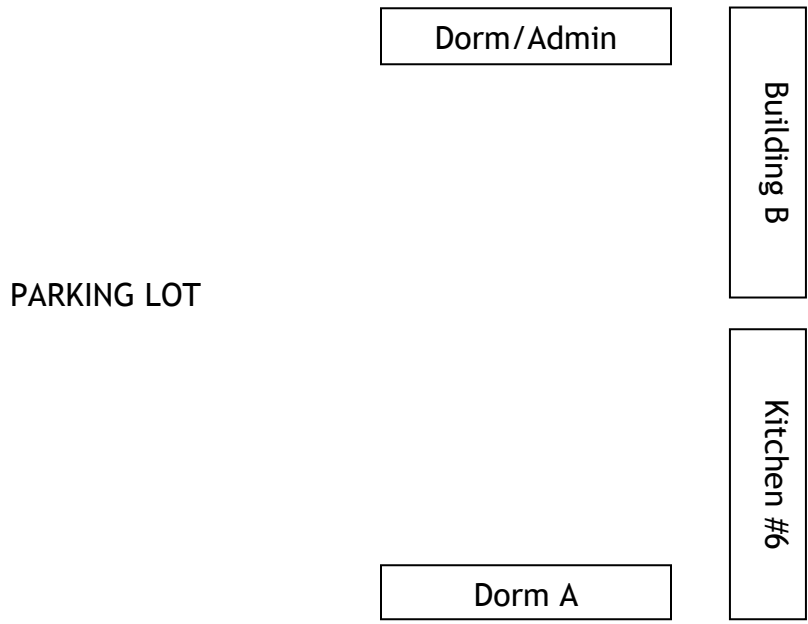

You can delivery your meal frozen in advance of your scheduled day. Please be sure to arrange with the Shelter to accept your meal. All containers must be securely foil covered and Labeled with your name, contents, the day and date it is to be served. Call the staff at the appropriate number above to advise them of your frozen delivery labeled with your name/group, contents, number of containers, and the date to be served.
